You know girl, I've been wrong so many times, but I want you to know that without you, I am nothing So maybe this time, we can come together, now

Oh yeah,
You say yes and I say no, let's stop the fight and let's go home

When I'm sitting here all alone in my house, and I wonder to myself what it's all about Just the day before we were hugging and smiling, doing things as one, out there profiling Hold each other hands everywhere we go, I'm always kissing you so everybody knows Try to have you back when things are not okay, and I brake the human off when they step into your face So I'm asking you why (all together now) did you have to leave

When I know that with you I wanna be I got to hear my inner, cause my mind is on a strength 'cause I'm thinkin' about the way you said you wanna do your thing
Look at me and say that you don't want me in your life
But I'm dropping all the honeyz and I let you be my hike Giving you my all and in every means, even when I sleep, I can hear you in my dreams

All together now, let's take a walk in the sun, All together now, c'mon everyone
All together now, together hand in hand, in no man's land (we'll be together again)
All together now, let's take a walk in the sun, All
together now, c'mon everyone
All together now, together hand in hand, in
no man's land (we'll be together again)

So if it wins, your space is getting smaller, room is closing in almost wants the wall Just think back we were kickin it together, 'cause the moments and the thought we will always be together, I don't want to fuss and fight because the things you say So maybe when you buy yourself you can come my way

When you look at me with your love sometimes I feel No, I keep the wrong ago, so tell me what's the deal?
I even try to tell you everything I do, but you ust believe in me
'cause baybe that's the real, and sometimes feeling and confused
Get your mind together 'cause you gonna have to choose
So can you tell me why you're feeling like you do?
'Cause things are never gonna be the same when I first met with you So try to keep your mind and stick with me, and we will be together
Always, and hopelishly

Oooh, together
You say yes and I say no, let's stup the fighting and let's go home
Together, hand in hand

All together now, let's take a walk in the sun, All
together now, c'mon everyone
All together now, together hand in hand, in
nomansland (we'll be together again)
All together now, let's take a walk in the sun, All
together now, c'mon everyone
You say yes and I say no, let's stup the fighting and
let's go home
In nomansland, we'll be together again

You made me so happy by giving me another chance, I know that you feel the same as I do And we'll be together forever and always
