Life is a Video Game

Life is a video game
That's all it is a video game
Life is a Video Game
Now play'eth the video game

Smash open crates and jump on the box
Get the checkpoint near the icy rocks
Hunt long and hard for shiny gold rings
Collect 100 and a get a free live "Tings"
Ever played Rayman or Crash Bandicoot
Take the jungle path or the sandy route
Defeat the big boss at the last level
Only then will it unleash the devil
You pull out a weapon it a +9 sword
With an enchantment like fire of sort
You strike the boss with one final blow
Only then will your game-wide fame go UP!

Life is a video game
That's all it is a video game
Life is a Video Game
Now play'eth the video game

Get game cheats for Crash Twinsanity
This game possessed your mind with insanity
You can't complete its so concievable
The Chronicle Sword is somehow retrievable
You slash your sword you swipe a light sabre
You stab with a dagger you whip like a tamer
You beat all the bad guys with a power combo
A chronicle combo the size of mongo
You look under the sand find a hidden gold plate
Worth 100 gold rings the treasurer state
You are one who lines up for the bowl
You now have the playstation control
Life is a video game
That's all it is a video game
Life is a Video Game
Now play'eth the video game
