(Chorus)

I'm reaching out my heart to you
Girl its just so hard
I'm wishing i could hold you
But my arms ain't that long
Girl I'm missin' your kisses, I'm missin' your touch
You know oohh this distance makes it hard to keep us close

(Verse 1)

Ya anotha airport drama
I'm leavin' and its hard to say goodbye
We don't know when we'll meet again
Tears rolling down your cheeks again
The last kiss has to last longer than the weekend and (oohh yeah)
So weakening the last few days
Laughters on our face more like a masquerade
but we cant cover it up this shit is too real can't even talk the split is to near Pop the trunk and check my bag tags
I left my luggage after I strap my backpack teary eyes might drown
I feel like Trey i don't wanna leave but i gotta go right now
Its always the same our hands let go
And it feels like the pain brands my soul
My vision get blurry you driving off
And deep inside my heart starts crying y'all

(Chorus)

I'm reaching out my heart to you
Girl its just so hard
I'm wishing i could hold you
But my arms ain't that long
Girl I'm missin' your kisses, I'm missin' your touch
You know oohh this distance makes it hard to keep us

(Verse 2)

Ten hours later 7 thousand miles away

I find myself all alone reminiscing
I feel like somethings missing but this my job I gotta be focused plus ambitious Sometimes i question all of this (is it worth it) I'm spending most of my time out here working Grinding instead of spending all of my time with My princess my wife my queen, I promise the sweet ones comin' and when i'm coming home but Trust its gonna be a dunkin dough nut (no no no)
I hate waking up in the middle of the night
And you're not by my side, right by my side (each night)

(Chorus)

I'm reaching out my heart to you
Girl its just so hard
I'm wishing i could hold you
But my arms ain't that long
Girl I'm missin' your kisses, I'm missin' your touch
You know oohh this distance makes it hard to keep us
Girl I think about this loving
A thousand times a day
And Girl you're still the closest to my heart
Even a million miles away

(Chorus)

I'm reaching out my heart to you
Girl its just so hard
I'm wishing i could hold you
But my arms ain't that long
Girl I'm missin' your kisses, I'm missin' your touch
You know oohh this distance makes it hard to keep us
close
This distance makes it hard (oh oh)
This distance makes it hard (harder to keep us close)

Girl I'm missin your kisses, I'm missin' your touch you know
This distance makes it harder to keep us close...
