n the minute u snooze will be the minute u lose, dude das the rules so I cruise wit the 2's to fix the damn fools dat think im slippin wit my juice breakin old habits so hard to do das y u see me on the same block wit the same crew n everybody sitting fat living good n im the only nigga dat be rappin in my hood I was raise by the hustlas n gain by the g's n taught by the bosses howda stack that cheese

T.I.: (Chorus)

u got rich n g shits still a part of u, cause breakin old habits so hard to do
u still watch for da haters n the rugged crew, cause
when I was shot dat nigga like I started to, cause
fresh out da dealership crackin up wit cigars in the coup man, cause breakin old habits so hard to do

Notorious B.I.G:

Damn it feel good to see people up on it flip 2 keys in 2 weeks n didnt flaw let my brain is haunted wit mean dreams gs's wit bb's on it supreme schemes to get richer the richie quickly niggas wanna hit me if they get me, dress my body in linen by Armani check it, my lyrical carjack make ur brun splat high calibre gats is all I fuck wit now keep the rough shit in my circumference mad bitches, wit mad noochies bulletproof vestes under they coochies spitting my ooze dont lose me, my trigger niggas represent driving dirty in jay 30 getting bent until my hit hos my murder mamis I b smoking trees in Belize when they find me while u still killing niggas wit my lali like cami and cyrus up in Cyprus fuck you all you on the floor wit da virus while I just slip coke smoke pounds of chope got lawyers watchin lawyers so I wont go broke now check it, dem country niggas call me frank white im spurtin off in my loft of course I kno my shits tight, surprise open my eyes still surprise got my shorty flying in wit keys taped to her thighs wit lovely utensils suhen my china thing she half black half oriental 86 she got me rentals

T.I.:

I use to drive a Chevy Monte Carlo bricks n blow all in it I was taught to sell dis shit u putcho nose all in it let my bitch drive da benz but dem roads off limit n how u call urself pimpin wit hos all in ur bidness wut it is the music bidness of the streets make the decision
I do dis in my sleep n u way outcho division pimpn dis game we play fo keeps n da rules remain hiddn dis aint a place fo laying da snitchin shit is forbidn I was sittin in da kitchen n weepin wit hopes of getting

all dat I forget to go blow see even 50 stacks n now am sittin back thinkin bout the time when a nigga get a 100gs think he went down LOOK FOR LOYALTY in the game it aint THERE n thangs aint da same they change it aint fair real niggas there doin dey time n aint here u commit da same crime come home da same year

when I was shot dat nigga like I started to cause
