Oh, I know there'd be trouble,
It's what happens when you live,
But hope is like a flame that never dies,
Hard's the road that I have taken,
But I walk it unforsaken.
I know this trial is not in vain because,
I feel my heart begin to change.

chorus

I am a brand new thing,
Love came walkin' in.

Oh, God make me stronger so I can wear the cross,
Im weak.
Ive fallen down so many times,
I will bear the weight of sorrow and it wont seem so great tomorrow,
Death to lose and life to gain.
Now i feel my heart begin to change,

chorus

Oh, Lord I want to know you,
I dont care for nothin' else,
Cuz nothin' and no one else can satisfy.
Here's my heard , oh please just take it,
Im afraid,
But please just break it,
I know this trial is not in vain because I feel my heart begin to change...
