"Fire"

Here is a question,
Who are the pure?
What is the thing you're livin' for?
The world says to grow up 'cause nothin' is true,
We I believe in one thing.
They're afraid to be inspired,
All that we desire is fire,
Same old deception in a brand new disguise.
What's good and evil?
You decide,
God says who he is,
And no one is higher,
God is true while men are liars.
God doesn't change with your desires,
The they get defensive,
Truth is so offensive.
They believe in nothing,
We believe in our thing.
Afraid to be inspired,
All that we desire is fire,
Is faith and passion,
Fire is transformation,
So do you wanna cool it?
Fan the flame when it glows,
They're afraid to be inspired,
All that we desire is fire.
