I've meant to do this for some time
I've gotta get it right this time
This time my God I will be yours.
All my heart my soul. And mind
Been so long since I truly smiled
But you touched my heart today
Reached through my mind of mud and mire
Consumed the idols in your way
So I'm brand new

Today I make my resolution
Today I make my resolution
Today I make my
Today I make my resolution
Today I make my

Looking back
The way I used to be

Been down so long that it seems like up
I took it now I've had enough
Of this life that I've been living
It feels so cold this far away
So today I will make a change
I will make a change today
Purge my mind of mud and mire
Cast all my gods away
So I'm brand new

Today I make my resolution
Today I make my resolution
Today I make my
Today I make my resolution
Today I make my

Looking back
The way I used to be
It was just me and God
Can I be there again?

Today I make my resolution

Today I make my resolution
Today I make my
Today I make my resolution
Today I make my
Today I make my resolution
