If I had my wish this Christmas
I'd only want one single thing
To find the ones who needed what I take for granted
And give good days away like I was Santa.

To the little girl who's hungry
I'd give November 26th
Leftover turkey with the family
Oh my jeans would hardly fit
I'd like to reach around the world
This Christmastime
And give her one of my
Extraordinary ordinary days.

I'd give any given Sunday to people down and out of faith
And pray I wouldn't only feel this way in December
'Cause my year's too full of blessings to remember

So to the homeless man who's freezin'
I'd give October 29th
First fire of the season
My love sittin' by my side
I'd like to reach around the world
This Christmastime
And give him one of my
Extraordinary ordinary days

And to all the sad and lonely
I'd give that Saturday in May
When the neighbors got together for a barbecue and a softball game
I'd like to reach around the world
This Christmastime
And give 'em one of my
Extraordinary ordinary days.
