Don't cry it's over Don't cry it's over
forevermore
You never saw it
You never did it
but here you are
and there you are You see the one side
but refuse to face it,
You know the one side
but cannot live It.
You can't believe it
You can't believe it
but here you are here you are
You never dreamed it
You never dreamed it
but here you are
and there you are You see the one side
but refuse to face it,
You know the one side
but cannot live it
Now . . .
