(Verse)

Held up like bird,
Sing a song I never learned, but I'll try.
Been singing about the past
And how the moment never lasts,
But that's a lie.

Take the time to start,
I get lost in these thoughts,
I don't mind.
The friends love you all,
Understand if I don't call for some time.

(Chorus)

And if the choirs roam
And the earth swallows this sun
I'll try not to be afraid.
And at the breaking dawn
All the words will be gone,
But the notes still remain.

(Verse)

Jumped off the roof,
Broke my arm and my front teeth,
But didn't cry.
Try to be a bird
So I can empty every word
From my mind.

(Chorus)

And if the choirs roam
And the earth swallows this sun
I'll try not to be afraid.
And at the breaking dawn
All the words will be gone,
But the notes still remain.
