This body that I own
It's got no use anymore
But to go to rack and ruin, no
Oh can't bear

This body that I own
I can't tell you what it's for
I can't tell you
I can't tell you, no

Alone in my room

Why, tell me, why?
I wanna reach you with this binary mind
Cause if I do I'm sure that we'll be complete
That's why I need this binary mind
So I can forget how lonely feels

This body that I own
It's given up but thank you for
The information given me, oh I
Oh I found

This body that I own
In spite of everything I've learned
It's gone
Why, why, why?

If death don't mind
No

Why, tell me, why?
I wanna reach you with this binary mind
Cause if I do I'm sure that we'll be complete
That's why I need this binary mind
So I can forget how lonely feels

I don't know why you've gone
It's out technocratic future world
Though it's only time ahead
But alone in my room

It don't matter
Just prepare my release

Why, tell me, why?
I wanna reach you with this binary mind
Cause if I do I'm sure that we'll be complete
That's why I need this binary mind
So I can forget how lonely feels
So I can forget how lonely feels

But if it's falling apart
It's fallen apart
And if I don't, I don't, all agree
I won't let that stop this no
I won't let that stop
This is falling apart
I won't let, if I don't I don't

This body that I own
This body that I own
