"Missing You"

Sitting here thinking about you and all the things we used to do I never thought that i would lose you, because you were always my boo sitting here wondering where we, wondering where we went wrong Cause now i am here all night long wishing you would come back home

So tell me why (why)
why did you have to go away
got me missing you everyday baby tell me why (why)
why did you have to go away
got me missing you everyday (everyday i am missing you)

I don't understand why you left, baby what didn't i do Wasn't i always there for you and wasn't i good to you How was i to know something was wrong baby i can't read minds
All you had to do was tell me but you kept it all inside

So tell me why (why)
Why did you have to go away
Got me missing you everyday
Baby tell me why (why)
Why did you have to go away
Got me missing you everyday (everyday i'm missing
you)

Girl i will never find another Another one to take your place Because you were so so good to me baby
And you kept a smile upon my face
And i'm on my bended knee
And i am crying, crying won't you come back to me Because you mean the world to me

So tell me why (why)
Why did you have to go away

Got me missing you everyday
Oh tell me why (why)
Why did you have to go away
Got me missing you everyday (everyday i'm missing
you)

I was so in love with you baby
But you broke my heart into little itty bitty pieces
What am i supposed to do living my life without you My heart, my soul, my one and only true love
