Sometimes I feel I am getting kind of low
Thoughts I am thinking are the reason
So, I try to remember without talking to myself
Things that I said or maybe things that I felt about you

Sitting in the corner of a crowded barroom
People all around me and I still feel alone
Just when I know I'm going to break down and cry
Someone plays a tune that dries the tear from my eye

There goes another love song
Someone's singing about me again
There goes another lover song
Now I need more than a friend

Lonesome and lonely and far from my home
Trying to get back to where I know I belong
Wishing and a-hoping I was already there
I just heard a voice whispered in my ear

Singing...

There goes another love song
Someone's singing about me again
There goes another lover song
Now I need more than a friend

Doo doo doo doo doo..

There goes another love song
Someone's singing about me again
There goes another lover song
Now I need more than a friend

I said...

There goes another love song
Someone's singing about me again
There goes another lover song
Now I need more than a friend
