Open doors

Open doors
(Drums crash in)

My time is running out now
I don't know where to go
I've got no place to run
And my chances are slowly leaving on a ship
That I can't board

There's too many open doors
So little time left
I'm hurtling through a maze
Turning every corner but they all seem to be
They all seem to have a dead end
There's just too many open doors
Doors
There's just too many open doors
Doors

There isn't enough seconds in a minute
Not enough minutes in an hour
There's not enough hours in the day
And there isn't enough hours in my life
I'm wasting time by saying
Does anyone have to choose a path so badly
That it all turns out like me

There's too many open doors
So little time left
I'm hurtling through a maze
Turning every corner but they all seem to be
They all seem to have a dead end
There's just too many open doors
Doors
There's just too many open doors
Doors

My time is ticking away
It's running out every second of the day
I'm not gonna make it to the end of the maze

It seems impossible to even find my way

There's too many open doors
So little time left
I'm hurtling through a maze
Turning every corner but they all seem to be
They all seem to have a dead end
There's just too many open doors
Doors
There's just too many open doors
Doors

Now my life has passed me by
Everything's alright
Everything's crystal clear
The decision has been made
I can feel myself slowly slipping away
I'm holding onto the edge of the world
So close on falling in

Everything has been amended
My fright has been lifted
My life has changed immensely
But what is always stuck in my mind
Is my life on the line slowly being cut
And all those open doors
I'm amazed I chose the right one

There was just so many open doors
There was just so little time
Hurtling through a maze trying to get out
Every corner had a dead end
But I escaped somehow
All those open doors
Doors
I escaped all those open doors
Doors

Just so much open doors
