Talking faster in her sleep
She can't hear herself scream
Walking backwards as she bleeds
She's already dead

She cries hopelessly at night
Waiting for her star to shine
Through bring her home
She says everything's alright
When really she cuts herself at night
Just to feel alive

On the corner in the night
He wipes his drying eyes
Waiting for the time to come
He's been here for a while
These pills were never his style
But that's what it takes to get by
So is it justified?

He screams hopelessly at night
Waiting for the sun to shine
Through bring him home
He says everything's alright
When really he overdosed last night
But they don't know

And I would give you my heart
So you could feel alive
I've got a love you must know
So drink from this cup
And this pain will be mine
You need this more than I do
Sweet daughter, dear son, I love you, too

â€¦you're never aloneâ€¦
