I see life like a mirror
And I see life so much clearer

We move so quickly
Who knows where the time goes
Where does this road lead
No one knows, no one knows

Listen to the single heart beating
Rhythm for an ever changing song

I see life with surprise
And I see life, oh in your eyes

Take all your troubles
Put them in a common file
Light a fire with reason
Watch it rise, watch it rise

Listen to the single voice singing
Lifted in an ever growing song

I see life without anger

I see life all together
I see life go on forever

Life goes on forever
Life goes on
