If you wanna test me, I'ma pass the quiz
Looking for a teammate, together we can win
Better treat me right, or I'ma trade you in
And you can get the deuces call me ex-girlfriend
Ok, just listen

Don't try to play me like no fool, huh
Do your dirty and come around like it's cool, huh
Forget it, you hoe niggas don't get enough
I get it, but I ain't the one for that bullshit, so...
I told myself never settle for less
And you ain't got to give if you ain't loving yourself
And I ain't jumping head first cause you got a little money
The minute you think you need them that's when shit get funny, now

I'm looking for a teammate, let's play the game together
Down for whatever, make it through the stormy weather
I bring mine to the table, then the dinner plate
So don't make a mistake, learn to appreciate

If you wanna test me, I'ma pass the quiz
Looking for a teammate, together we can win
Better treat me right, or I'ma trade you in
And you can get the deuces call me ex-girlfriend X 2

Ok, peace, holler, I'm gone, I'm way too strong
You been too wrong, with you I do not belong
So carry on, I will not be stepped on

So move along, now this right here, my theme song
How can we grow, with no trust?
I'm down to compromise, but damn, not too much
You want to make it right, well nigga, man up!
No time to back track baby gonna step up
Guys all in my face, but I don't want nothing but you
I see the good in you baby, can you be true?
Don't get me wrong, every couple got they issues
Stop messing up, or it's on to the next dude, I'm gone

If you wanna test me, I'ma pass the quiz
Looking for a teammate, together we can win
Better treat me right, or I'ma trade you in
And you can get the deuces call me ex-girlfriend

You want to make it right, go and man up
You want to make it right, go and man up
Don't back trap baby, gonna step up
You want to make it right, go and man up
You want to make it right, go and man up
You want to make it right, go and man up
You want to make it right, go and man up
Don't back trap baby, gonna step up

If you wanna test me, I'ma pass the quiz
Looking for a teammate, together we can win
Better treat me right, or I'ma trade you in
And you can get the deuces call me ex-girlfriend X 2
