"Silence"

Silence, I am Breathing
Concentrating
On anything but you
Quiet, I am fed up
With your whining,
That's all I hear

Creeping through my ears
To rest inside my shed
Shouting through my voice
You're lying in my head
Invading all my dreams
You're keeping me awake
How long before you leave?
Stop breathing in my face

Silence
Meditating, visualizing
That you are not here

Silence
I will end this
Then we both lose
Each other...

Kick you when you're down
You know that's not me
I'm bailing out of here
As long as I can

Silence
