The bottle is open and so is the man Stumbles up to face the day
Like a dream the world seems to sing now
But it didn't have much to say

Said 'don't let stress get you head in a mess, my friend close your eyes and please don't look at the time the dishes are clean and your beds made from top to end
a bottle and some time and all things will be just fine'

He'd been wondering should he try anymore
He said they said is was dead Should he try and go to the top now Or should he just go to bed

I said, 'don't let stress get your head in a mess my friend
close your eyes and please don't look at the time
the dishes are clean and your beds made from top to
a bottle and some time and all things will be just fine'

You better get things while you can You better stop them, you better grab them Better
Simple Pleasures, man
Simple Pleasures
Simple Pleasures, man
