(S.DAY)

A dead dog lies with the cats out on the mat,
watch me pull a rabbit from his hat.

I Oooooowa! A OooooHAI

A Happy little play toy puppet on a string.

She asks herself whats makes me do these things.

I Oooooowa! A OooooHAaa

Now your gone, I just don't know what to do,

Im so lonely, so lonely sitting here without you

I just wish I still had you on my side,

that you would since, how will my mind survive.

We're gonna take you on a holiday,

away from this place that you are so afraid.

I Oooooowa! A OooooHAaa

I wish I had everything I that Had Lost.

My in Innocence and to see things had no cost.

I Oooooowa! A OooooHA

Now your gone I just don't know what to do,

Im so lonely, so lonely sitting here without you

I just wish I still had you on my side

that you would since, how will my mind survive.

My world is spinning much to fast and Ive lost everything that I once had

Wontcha tell me what am I to do can't you see that Im still in love with you.

A dead dog lies with the cats out on the mat,

watch me pull a rabbit from his hat.

I Oooooowa! A OooooHAI Oooooowa! A OooooHA

Now your gone I just don't know what to do,

Im so lonely, so lonely sitting here without you.

I just wish I still had you on my side.

that you would since, how will my mind survive.

Hhhhhhhhhhaaaaaaaaarrrrrrrrrr.....
