(S.DAY)

The sky is falling down,
Hiding a smile under my frown.
Lost and alone in reality.
The world is closing in,
Chasing my tail I don't know were to begin.
Lost and alone in reality.
But I am so happy, just to be with you,
I am so happy, just to be with you,
I am so happy in my hopless mind.
A plane falls from the sky,
Three hundred dead, no-one survives.
Lost and alone in reality.
I am breathing the air,
The lifeless grey of the city square.
Lost and alone in reality.
But I am so happy, just to be with you,
I am so happy, just to be with you,
I am so happy in my hopless mind.
My perception is gone,
Always feeling that something is wrong.
Lost and alone in reality.
Getting lost in the crowd,
Always feeling like screaming out loud.
Lost and alone in reality.
But I am so happy, just to be with you,
I am so happy, just to be with you,
I am so happy in my... hopless mind.
