(A.ZAID)

I, was looking for you.
But i only found pieces,
lying on the floor.
I, put them back together.
But it didn't look much,
like you anymore.
Please, please come back to me
I, was feeling very lonely.
Was getting rather tired,
waiting for your call.
You, were my one and only,
now your only pieces,
hanging on the wall,
Please, please come back to me
Please, please come back to me.
I, asked you if you loved me.
But you didn't answer,
Perhaps you didn't know....
You, never gave me your love,
so i take your pieces everywere i go....
Please, please come back to me
Please, please come back to me.
