This is the real life this ain't no joke people stay on the street can't afford homes they can't control they actions can't get satisfactions but when they finish they don't know what they been asking.

With the lack of monie people can't do the things to get what they want can't afford things they should've been good hope they understund but that what it is like in the hood they don't have the money to get the honey to get what they want is just so not funny

This is the real life
this ain't no joke people
stay on the streets
can't afford homes they can't control;
satisfactions to get what
they want they don't know what they asking

can't afford homes they can't control;

Teens having kids and having sex they try to be so grown but they don't kno nothing yet doing dumb things going to jail trien to be so cool they gonna be living like hell they don't have the money to get the honey to get what they want

The real life is here that's the deal what you feel that's yo deal this is the true your life have flu but it's not cool when your life wuz through

This is the real life this ain't
want it is just not funny.
