Bandits sighted, fear ignited
Searchlights are cutting the night
Fighters rising to the challenge
Enemy to the left and the right
Never have so many owed
So much to so few
Reach for the sky, it's do or die
Our future's depending on you
On the wings of an eagle
Heading straight for my goal
I'm gonna fight to the finish
With my heart and my soul
12 O'clock high, burning the sky
Danger comes out of the sun
Guns are screaming, hit full throttle
Eye for an eye, the damage is done
Never have so many owed
So much to so few
Reach for the sky, it's do or die
Our future's depending on you
On the wings of an eagle
Heading straight for my goal
I'm gonna fight to the finish
With my heart and my soul
City burning, table turning
Attacking source of the hate
Firepower, overlord
Gold, gun and sword
Never have so many owed
So much to so few
Reach for the sky, it's do or die
Our future's depending on you
On the wings of an eagle
Heading straight for my goal
I'm gonna fight to the finish
With my heart and my soul
On the wings of an eagle
Heading straight for my goal
I'm gonna fight to the finish
With my heart and my soul
