Think we reached the limit
Turned and locked the door
You don't really know the score
Listen to the thunder
The electric roar
Look what we have got in store
One-way ticket
Going off the edge
Under pressure, under fire
It will never end
There's only one way to satisfy yourself
Make everything louder than everything else
We're heading for the overload
Heading for the overload
Maximum intensity is what it really means to me
Heading for the overload
In the line of fire
Decibel attack
There can be no turning back
Mission of destruction
Shockwave in the air
Dealing out the airwair stare
One-way ticket
Going off the edge
Under pressure, under fire
It will never end
There's only one way to satisfy yourself
Make everything louder than everything else
We're heading for the overload
Heading for the overload
Maximum intensity is what it really means to me
Heading for the overload
You know that it's essential
To make the strike
The ultimate potential
Will be unleashed-look into the light
One-way ticket
Going off the edge
Under pressure, under fire
It will never end
There's only one way to satisfy yourself
Make everything louder than everything else

We're heading for the overload
Heading for the overload
Maximum intensity is what it really means to me
Heading for the overload
