So wrong from my mistake
So much for this settling break
No more of this can I take
But you always care

Shouldn't have done this to you
Life is hard but what can I do
All these words make me confused
But you always care

I'll trust a saint i'll find that soon
Everyday for us is something new
Need an open mind for a different view
And you always care

But I never cared for you
But I never cared for you
But I never cared for you
I'm so wrong

So wrong from my mistake
So much for this settling break
No more of this can I take
But you always care

But I never cared for you
But I never cared for you
But I never cared for you
I'm so wrong

Shouldn't have done this to you
Life is hard but what can I do
All these words make me confused
But you always care

I'll trust a saint i'll find that soon
Everyday for us is something new
Need an open mind for a different view
And you still care

But I never cared for you
But I never cared for you

But I never cared for you
You're so sweet
But I'm so wrong

I'll turn over a new leaf
I'll turn over a new leaf
I'll turn over a new leaf
C'mon!

Please understand that the world... It's just so beautiful
Everything about it is so beautiful
The air I breathe
The love I show
All the world we love it
I thank God for my life
Cuz... It's just so beautiful
