"Every Cell"

These days it doesnt take much to make me cry.
And I dont have to wonder why,
A song a, scent ,a summer with your same hair, all these things can take me back to when

I missed you with every cell in my body.
I shake and I ache when I think about holding you
And I, I see that I'm ok alone and I want to believe it
But I want things back the way they used to be.

We had a love that could not be contained
How sad it is it could not be sustained Sure makes me scratch my head and wonder how
I got to feeling like I'm feeling now

And, I miss you with every cell in my body
I shake and I ache when I think about holding you
And I, I see that I'm ok alone and I want to believe it
But I want things back the way they used to be.

It kills me to hear you say, that you need for me to stay away
Cause it knocks you right down to the ground
Just for you to hear my sound
And I'm saying

I miss you with every cell in my body
I shake and I ache when I think about holding you
And I, I see that I'm ok alone and I want to believe it
But I want things back the way they used to be.

Come pull me out of this darkness Pull me out of this pool of tears I'm drowning in
And I'm so sick and tired of feeling like this My friends are saying Deb, this could take years and years and..

I miss you with every cell in my body
I shake and I ache when I think about holding you
And I, I see that I'm ok alone and I want to believe it
But I want things back the way they used to be.

I miss you, I miss you
