A simple gospel message
In a little church one day
Touched the heart of one
Who listened

As the congregation prayed
There'd been an invitation
Inviting all to come but kneeling
Down to pray was only one

For only one, He would have suffered
And given up His life for only one
He'd have borne the shame
And made the sacrifice

For God so loved the whole world
He gave His only Son but I believe
He'd have done the same
For only one

Now some may say, why bother?
With only one or two?
But Jesus knows the feeling
When the only one is you

So if you hear Him calling
Don't be ashamed to come
Even if you're the only one

For only one, He would have suffered
And given up His life for only one
He'd have borne the shame
And made the sacrifice

For God so loved the whole world
He gave His only Son but I believe
He'd have done the same
For only one

For only one
He would have died for only one
You are the one

For only one, He would have suffered
And given up His life for only one
He'd have borne the shame
And made the sacrifice

For God so loved the whole world
He gave His only Son but I believe
He'd have done the same
For only one
