Hey, Little Brother

Words and music by Ray Boltz

CHORUS:

Hey, little brother, welcome back home

It's good to see you again

Hey, little brother, welcome back home

To your family and your friends

CHORUS

Now you do not know

What your Father's been through

At night He would call out your name

Then for hours untold

He would stare down the road

Praying you'd come home again

CHORUS

I must confess I was quite envious

When I heard what Father planned to do

But after I talked to Him

I realized I had been

Almost as far from home as you

I was almost as far from home as you, so

CHORUS

Oh, dear brother run into my arms

And tell me you are home to stay

For there is no other Father like ours

And we're so glad you're here today

Yes, we're so glad you're here today

CHORUS (repeat)

2002 Shepherd Boy MusicASCAP.
