Mercy

Words by Ray Boltz, Music by Phil Naish

You spoke the word

And lit the day

With loving hands

You formed the clay

And made the ones

Who would betray

Your mercy

On a mountain side

They heard You speak

Saying, Blessed are the poor

And meek

And on Your knees

You washed their feet

Oh, mercy

CHORUS:

Your mercy shines like the morning

When the darkness runs

From the day

Like the rising sun

Oh, Your glory

Chases the shadows away

And we are changed

By mercy

To bear the nails to save a friend

Is a thought I cannot comprehend

But to die for those

Who drove them in

That's Your mercy

And though heaven

Truly has in store

An eternity of great rewards

The only thing I'm praying for

Is Your mercy

CHORUS

Let Your mercy fill my heart

CHORUS
