One more time you've heard the story
Of our Saviors birth
Heard how few beheld His glory
When He came to Earth

Oh but soon every eye shall see Him
Angels at His side
See Him now on a great white stallion
In the eastern sky

Sent by the Father
Jesus go and call my children
A trumpet sounds and the Angels sing

Like never before
With shepherds and wise men
We humbly bow
And every tongue confess that He is Lord

When He comes in all His glory
Comes to claim His own
We won't need a star to guide us
We'll be going home

Once a baby in a manger
No room at the inn
Now a king who reigns forever
Over death and sin

Sent by the Father
Jesus go and call my children
A trumpet sounds and the Angels sing

Sent by the Father
Jesus go and call my children
A trumpet sounds and the Angels sing
