Until All Have Been Served

Words by Ray Boltz, Music by Ray Boltz and Steve Millikan

Brother and sisters sharing communion
Holding the bread of life in their hands
In just a few hours theyd be going home
Serving the Lord in faraway lands

When someone said,
Has everyone been served?

This is what was heard

CHORUS:

No, no, not everyone has been served

No, no, we need to

Take them to his word

How can they know him

When theyve never heard?

No, no, not everyone has been served

With tears in their eyes

They prayed for the cities

Where millions of people suffer each day

They live and they die

Never knowing why

No one is there to show them the way

And the Father says,

Has everyone been served?

For so long He has heard

CHORUS (repeat)

We are the light and we know the truth

Can we forget what were called to do?

No, no, not until all have been served

No, no, we need to

Take them to his word

In every nation let this cry be heard

No, no, not until all have been served

No, no, not until all have been served

No, no, we need to

Take them to his word

In every nation, let this cry be heard

No, no, not until all have been served
