Your gentle pace it provides a rhythm for the unwashed few of us
Lock and loaded, past is a prison for the crimes of the universe
Are you in the situation to decide whether you really care?
C'mon you know that it's hard to complain about the way you live

So please don't let it roll right by you
Just think if the same thing happened to you Would you be, would you be happy to walk in my shoes?
Would you be, would you be happy to walk in my
shoes?

I'm already tired of your chronic compassion fatigue
The final turd in the dungheap of every post modern disease
Do you have the information to decide whether you really care?
It's hard to believe you'd look me in the eye and turn away again

So please don't let it roll right by you
Just think if the same thing happened to you
Would you be, would you be happy to walk in my
shoes?
Would you be, would you be happy to walk in my
shoes?

So please don't let it roll right by you
Just think if the same thing happened to you
Would you be, would you be happy to walk in my
shoes?
Would you be, would you be happy to walk in my
shoes?

Are you in the situation to decide whether you really
care?
C'mon you know that it's hard to complain about the way you live

Are you in the situation?
C'mon you know that it's hard to complain about the way you live
