Loneliness
is the greatest fear of all it leaves a void
nothing can refill

Don't you even once think of me?
I feel like I'm wasting my thoughts on you
but who's in the wrong –
you or I?

Is it my mind
that's going berserk?
and do I expect too much from you?
or is it the others who're just too cool?
Don't you even once think of me?
I feel like I'm wasting my thoughts on you
but who's in the wrong?
you or I?

I know, you don't owe me anything you're free to come and go as you like no, you don't owe me anything but a small gesture would be kind but a small gesture ... would be ... be kind
