When the vapour hits the air
When the button feels your touch
It's fall just like you sense
It'll fall just like you sense

Into some forgotten space
Where the envy and the hate
Swim around in figure eights
Swim around in figure eights

We descend so easily
Give it up for short-term memory
Fight your nature if you can
And hope for heaven where we land

All the arms around you now
Could they ever catch you then
First they tell me not to fret
Then you frighten me again

Can't you listen to the beast
Can't you do with any less
I was only getting dressed
Now im gettin dissaffected and

You're the brother and the beast
You're the friend i knew the best
Can't you listen to the past
Can't you let the singles pass

It'll fall just like you said
It'll fall just like you said
It'll fall just like you said
It'll fall just like you said
