"Call It Clear"

listen up lovely and hear what the evening sees in you lilacs and landmines you count on your fingers itches you ought to be and soon just let them call you

why do you think you're here?
trouble the backseat worry the windshield with that face what couldn't you have?

head of st. catherine hearts that will run to meet you we only volunteers my ear why do you think we're here? is that why they call it clear?

i reckon i'd say some sometimes
my delicate slip of sunshine
you can die
if you decide

my delicate slip of sunshine
you can die

my delicate slip of sunshine
you can die

you can't die
if you decide

you
