someone told me
stars will fall only when i am not looking am not looking for anything tonight shape of these hands used to hold grown up where whispered nonsense
underneath the leaves like a child in a pile
i would burn in heat
sending ash into these strip the paint with pounding rain here i make my own
again and again
again and again
see those search lights
never find a better life watch those tail lights let their red ensue my eyes but i won't break this fall acting like a voodoo doll every move you don't intend
here i make my own
again and again
again and again
again and again
[again and again and again and again and again]

you came home last halloween could it be you
you have a mask i haven't seen
i haven't seen
i haven't seen
i haven't seen
