Hiding out under the skin of your shadow
You take it with you
All your denial
Tell me when this room was filled with forgetting
And I'll tell you where we stood

Missing out under the veil of your sadness
I'll take it with me
All your denial
You are here and when you're gone
Someone else is in your place
Masquerading
And changing all that you are
And all that you'll ever be

Am I standing in your way?
There's a window over here that won't open up

Am I here
Or am I looking through your open window?
Moving me
As if you're playing all these different people
