I'm still the same, won't never change
Dangling from the edge
Too afraid to take the fall
I'm still the same, won't never change
I'm still the same

And it seemed too clear when it beckoned me
To leave my home and my family
But the woods were dark and the river ran wild
And the city called to the desolate child

What will you do with your life
What will you do with your life

I'm hanging by a thread
It's happening again
I'm still the same, won't never change
Dangling from the edge
Too afraid to take the fall
I'm still the same, won't never change
I'm still the same

What will you do with your life
What will you do with your life

I'm hanging by a thread
It's happening again
I'm still the same, won't never change
Dangling from the edge
Too afraid to take the fall
I'm still the same, won't never change
I'm still the same
