(Johnny Bush)

Just because you lost your heart
Did you lose your conscience too?
Why must you punish me
For what he's done to you.

Hatred caused by injured pride
Made you lie and deceive
You can't get back again
So you take it out on me.

And eye for an eye, a heart for a heart
You're making me pay for another man's crime
And eye for an eye a heart for a heart
You didn't have one so you took mine.

--- Instrumental ---

It was just a game with you
With no feeling or regret
You thought by hurting me
It would help you to forget.

Will I be like you are now?
Will I do the things you've done?
Will another have to lose
Before I can say I won?

Any eye for an eye, a heart for a heart
You're making me pay for another man's crime
And eye for an eye a heart for a heart
You didn't have one so you took mine...
