(Dick Glasser - Jay Johnson)
You must have faith
In everything you do
Faith will help you find the way
Faith will see you through.
Faith can move mountains
And change the tides of seas
You can follow this guiding light
Wherever you may be.
Like the darkness comes at the end of the day
There must be an end to the night
And from the depths of your darkest moment
Faith will show you the light.
Ye,s you must have faith
In everything you do
Faith will help you find the way
Faith will see you through.
--- Instrumental ---
And from the depths of your darkest moment
Faith will show you the light.
Ye,s you must have faith
In everything you do
Faith will help you find the way
Faith will see you through...
