I'm goin' away without you babe I'm goin' away all by myself
I'm gonna find the one who lives inside of me
And when I do I send for you to live with me

I don't know where I'm gonna go I just need time to be alone
I know that I'm gonna miss your company
But I need time to clear my mind then be with me

I'm goin' away without you babe I'm goin' away all by myself
I'm gonna find the one who lives inside of me
And when I do I send for you to live with me
And when I do I send for you to live with me
