(Noel Sherman - Joe Sherman)
Ramblin' rose, ramblin' rose
Why you ramble no one knows
Wild and wind blown
That's how you've grown
Who can cling to a ramblin' rose?
Ramble on, ramble on
When you're ramblin' days are gone
Who will love you with a love true
When you're ramblin' days are gone?
Ramblin' rose, ramblin' rose
Why I want you heaven knows
Though I love you with a love true
But who can cling to a ramblin' rose?
Ramblin' rose, ramblin' rose
Why I want you heaven knows
Though I love you with a love true
But who can cling to a ramblin' rose?...
