Down below the Rio Grande
A Senorita held my hand
And sweetly sang an old melody
Without a worry or a care
A rose she gave me from her hair
And then she whispered "Si, Senior, Si, Si"

In a cabaret we danced the hours away
Her eyes told more than words there could say
I told her I had to go
The band played Spanish Two Step soft and low

I told her I had to go
The band played Spanish Two Step soft and low
