(Dave Kirby)

Oh, this was not an ordinary morning
It even seems the sun came up all wrong
Now light the day of love is almost over
And come tomorrow morning you'll be gone.

Let's go to sleep tonight and wake up yesterday
Back when this room was more than just a place to lay
Where has the love all gone it can't be far away
If we'll just go to sleep and wake up yesterday.

If destiny won't take us both together
And surely we could find someone who would
Let's try to hold on just a little longer
And disappoint the future like we should.

Let's go to sleep tonight and wake up yesterday
Back when this room was more than just a place to lay
Where has the love all gone it can't be far away
If we'll just go to sleep and wake up yesterday.

Let's go to sleep tonight and wake up yesterday...
