to travel around the world, the world and laughed sweetly and told you me that my kiss smells menta, smells menta

to fly like a bird up from the world and you draw wings in a white paper and you told me, don't go my light and i stayed here for not missing nothing to you i stayed here for you to no being afraid in order not to stay alone, and for me nothing and i stayed here for you to not wilt one night you had told me that i should be born for you to be born for you, only for you and i took you in my arms and i was lost in you, enchanted eyes a night you had told to me that you can't live without me and i didn't speak again because in my arms were you
