English translation

i close my eyes and recall to mind the party night i found you my spangle transforms into fish scales i am a mermaidyou call me to come to you as though you commanded the waves an air of mystery hangs about youlook, the perfectly round, orange moon is laughing tonight it's like magicparty, party, flames ignite at the touch of our fingers party, party, freeze time and let us stay forever like thisi'm replaying in my head the party night i spent with you i still have fish scales and yet i am a mermaid that cannot swimi want to swim straight away to where you're at but there isn't a drop of water in town just like the other day

the orange moon is laughing tonight.
.. it's magical party, party, the mermaid attains the water and starts to swim party, party, for you, and only you my love can't reach you if the world runs dry the sea of love, the sea of love
