Isolated feelings, its like my heart is bleeding. I can't escape it, inside my head it keeps repeating. Isolated feelings its like my heart is bleeding. I can't escape it, inside my head it keeps repeating. Everytime I seem to close my eyes I feel so dead inside so I cry myself to sleep. All I ever do is think of the pain, feels like I'm goin insane, so I cry myself to sleep. I don't wanna be talked to, I don't wanna be touched, I don't need your advice, I don't wanna be fucked. People think I have it all but I don't have much. I just wanna fly away but to the ground I'm stuck. I'd just rather walk away but you don't seem to understand. Why should I voice my opinion when you have the upper hand? Its kinda sad I'm right back in the same position, I got so many eager ears but still nobody ever listens. And my friends? Yeah man I aint got much of that, just people dyin to be in the presence of that bitch Raz. And thats fine cause in reality I'm ugly inside. If you really knew the truth I'd bet you'd quit wasting your time, and your money. I'm like a seed planted deep nurished by hate. I've evolved into this monster with a face of disgrace. Everyday is just the same, is soemthing missing inside? Certain scenes keep haunting me, and keep me cryin at night. Why were others more important, why did I come last? I'm so tattered and torn its like a blast from the past. I know I aint the one to judge but I can't help it sometimes. When I step outside the box I notice forespread lies. So I cry myself to sleep, someone listen please. I'm so bitter inside. Its almost hard to breathe, like I'm asmatic when I talk you hear static. You can't grasp or understand it. Once again I've given into madness. Isolated feelings, its like my heart is bleeding I can't escape it, inside my head it keeps repeating. Isolated feelings, its like my heart is bleeding, I can't escpae it, inside my head it keeps repeating. Everytime I seem to close my eyes I feel so dead inside so i cry myself to sleep. All i ever do is think of the pain, feels like I'm goin insane so I cry myself to sleep...
