(Distorted Voice in Background)
Please just take me away...

(Intro)
Come all my minions, I'll take you away
Into my land of ?intravment?
Come all my minions, The bloods bout to spray
Enter my world of madness...

(Verse)
I'm the one that holds the key to madness and despair
So all you motherfuckers take key, Be aware
My life is dedicated evil force and reinsin
It's my love for hatred that indeed keeps me goin
A bastard of love, A fuckin curse from the start
Cause bad karma and black fills to the rim of my heart
You see it's pretty easy, The ones I hate, I kill Cause deep down inside, It makes me feel so real
But wait theres a down side, Listen to this
The people I kill, Their so violently pissed
So they come back to haunt me
Inside my brain they taunt me
I'm shaking in corner wanting them to just get the fuck up
But they won't!
And there is nothing that can really be done
I confess I'm a core whore, And yea, It's not fun
I'm the one who suffers in the end
I see dead.. dead.. dead.. dead...

(Outro)
Come and play with me
I'll show you things you you've thought you never see
Torture and extacy
Release yourself and come and die with me

Come and die with me...
