These days there's too much information
Too little conversation
And nothing in between
And I'm a way out in all directions
I'm seeing my reflection in just about everything

Ooh, there's nothing like an ocean
Catch your breath with every wave come crashing in
Ooh, got mixed emotions
Sure feels good to ride along that western wind
Hope it brings me back again
There's nothing like an ocean

These days, I still got miles to go
I keep running each day low
Sometimes I drive myself insane
Buses, cars, and planes

Nobody sees my face
Nobody knows my name

Ooh, there's nothing like an ocean
Catch your breath with every wave come crashing in
Ooh, got mixed emotions
Sure feels good to ride along that western wind

Ooh, there's nothing like an ocean
Catch your breath with every wave come crashing in
Ooh, got mixed emotions
Sure feels good to ride along that western wind
Hope it brings me back again
There's nothing like an ocean, an ocean

Nothing like an ocean, an ocean
Nothing like an ocean, an ocean
